FROM THE CITY OF BRISBANE LORD MAYOR

Brisbane is proud to again host the Australian PGA Championship this summer. This year Brisbane was named Australia's top sports city, and it is easy to see why.

The PGA Championship is an exciting feature in Brisbane's thrilling sporting events calendar as it attracts some of the world's best golfers and is a huge driver for visitation to the city.

Supported by Brisbane Economic Development Agency, this event delivers millions in economic benefits to local Brisbane businesses, with hotels, tourism experiences, bars and restaurants experiencing an upswing in patronage. Last year, 62,000 fans lined the pristine greens to watch reigning champion Cam Smith's electrifying win, and I was thrilled to present Cam with the keys to the city after his stellar performance abroad.

Brisbane is Australia's fastest growing capital city with unstoppable momentum with first-class shopping and entertainment precincts like Howard Smith Wharves and the Queen Street Mall, picturesque parklands, an internationally acclaimed music scene, and an abundance of ever-evolving cultural and leisure opportunities.

We hope visitors take advantage of their time off the course to explore Brisbane's riverside dining, rooftop bars, diverse tourism attractions and idyllic subtropical surrounds.

The spotlight on Brisbane will only intensify as the city continues to evolve and prepares to host the 2032 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

The contest at Royal Queensland Golf Club couldn't be hotter this year and I hope you all enjoy a memorable weekend of world-class international sport.

FROM THE PGA OF AUSTRALIA

Welcome to the Royal Queensland Golf Club for the 87th staging of the Fortinet Australian PGA Championship – one of our “Aussie majors” on the Challenger PGA Tour of Australasia.

An outstanding field of Australian and international golfing talent has been assembled this week, headed by our defending champion, Cam Smith, who will be attempting to win the Joe Kirkwood Cup for the fourth time.

I’m sure all of us who were here at Royal Queensland, or were watching on our broadcast partners in Australia or overseas, will remember the wonderful scenes that witnessed last year as more than 60,000 golf fans celebrated their hometown favourite’s win. The Fortinet Australian PGA Championship is the PGA of Australia’s flagship event, showcasing our current and emerging Australian talent on the world stage.

Once again, the tournament is co-sanctioned with our friends from the DP World Tour and it’s very pleasing to see so many of their players back on Australian shores once again to launch their 2023/2024 season, adding to the depth of field for our event.

When our team is planning each year’s PGA Championship, we have our focus firmly on the fan and player experience and creating a fun-filled vibe that everyone will enjoy over the four days.

We’ve got something to entertain the ultra-keen sports fans through to those just looking for a great event experience.

This year, we have taken our Party Hole, the par-three 17th to the next level, making it more accessible to more people, increasing the fun factor. And watch out for a new pin position that may just offer up a hole-in-one. Our younger golfers will love the Callaway Kids Course and there’s many activities in the village precincts to add to your on-course experience.

From everyone connected with the Australian PGA Championship, thank-you to our title sponsor Fortinet, a global leader in cybersecurity, as well as our long-term partners Tourism and Events Queensland and the Brisbane Economic Development Agency, who have been integral to the continued evolution of our event.

And thanks to all of the fans who will join us this week, providing an atmosphere that our professionals love to be part of here on the course that will host the golf event for the 2032 Olympic Games. I’m sure this will be another Fortinet Australian PGA Championship to cherish.

Gavin Kirkman
CEO
PGA of Australia

WELCOME

FROM THE DP WORLD TOUR

On behalf of the DP World Tour, I am delighted to welcome you to the Fortinet Australian PGA Championship at Royal Queensland Golf Club.

On behalf of the DP World Tour, I am delighted to welcome you to the Fortinet Australian PGA Championship at Royal Queensland Golf Club.

This is a very exciting week for the DP World Tour as our 2024 Race to Dubai begins, with the Fortinet Australian PGA Championship marking the start of our new Opening Swing – the first of five Global Swings which take place between now and the end of August.

Not only will players be competing to win this prestigious title here at Royal Queensland Golf Club in Brisbane, they will also be able to earn points on our Swing Ranking, with the aim of earning a sharing of a new bonus pool, qualification into Rolex Series events and qualification into the second phase of our season, the Back 9, in the autumn.

In addition to launching our 2024 season, the Fortinet Australian PGA Championship is also the first of two consecutive tournaments held in Australia this month as part of our Strategic Alliance with the Challenger PGA Tour of Australasia. Our thanks go to Chairman Rodger Davis and CEO Gavin Kirkman as we continue to work together to provide playing opportunities for both memberships.

Our Strategic Alliances with organisations around the world provide important global pathways which enable players to reach the highest levels of the men's professional game. As a result of our partnership, the top three players on the Challenger PGA Tour of Australasia Order of Merit, David Micheluzzi, Tom Power Horan and Andrew Martin, have each earned full playing rights on the DP World Tour for the forthcoming year where they will be able to compete for our record overall prize fund of US$148.5million.

Our continued growth as a Tour is possible through the support of our many partners and we must thank Fortinet for their continued commitment not only as Title Partner of this event, but also as an Official Partner of the DP World Tour.

Finally, we are grateful to Tourism and Events Queensland, Brisbane City Council and the members and staff of Royal Queensland Golf Club for hosting us this week, as well as the volunteers and fans who make weeks like these so special.

Enjoy the golf.

Keith Pelley
Chief Executive Officer,
DP World Tour

Still entrenched in the world top 50, Adam has already won the Kirkwood Cup two times and is sure to have huge, parochial home-state support in Queensland as he tries to complete the treble. His 2023 campaign on the US PGA Tour featured four top-10 finishes, showing he is well on track for an 11th Presidents Cup appearance for The International team next year.

Min Woo Lee

Age: 25

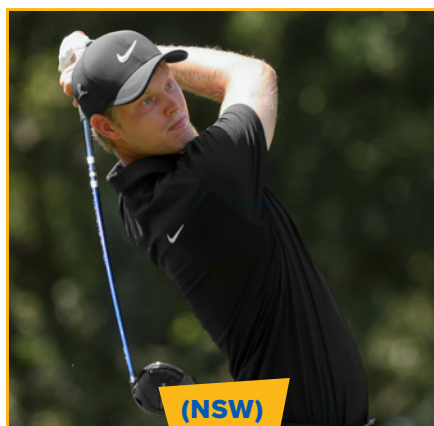

One of the rising superstars in world golf, Min Woo's spectacular play has allowed him to successfully follow the pathway from the Challenger PGA Tour of Australasia to the DP World Tour and now the US PGA Tour for 2024. Always entertaining and with a huge social media presence, Min Woo produces his best golf in the big events and this year figured in the top-10 of both the US Open and Players Championship, as well as scoring a victory on the Asian Tour at the Macau Open where he totalled an amazing 30-under-par. He's determined to win one of Aussie golf's majors this summer.

Cameron Davis

Age: 28

Cam lifted his Official World Golf Ranking to a career-high inside the top 50 in 2023 thanks to a strong season on the US PGA Tour which included a top five at the US PGA Championship. This week he will be trying to join an elite group of golfers to complete the Australian Open and Australian PGA double. His Open win came in 2017 when, at age 22, he stunned the golf world with a closing 64 to claim the title at The Australian Golf Club. Cam made his Presidents Cup debut in 2022 and is sure to be a presence for the Internationals again in 2024.

- Challenger PGA Tour Australasia wins: 1 (2017 Australian Open)
- PGA Tour wins: 1
- 2023 best finishes: 3rd Fortinet Championship; T4th US PGA Championship; T6th The Players. Championship; T6th Fedex St Jude Championship; T7th RBC Heritage; T7th Wyndham Championship; T7th Shriners Children's Open; T10th 3M Open

Lucas Herbert

Age: 27

One of the best putters on Tour and a threat in any tournament when he gets hot, Herbert added a third DP World Tour title to his career record this year when he triumphed in Japan in April. He also has one victory on the US PGA Tour where he now plays most of his golf. Originally from Bendigo in country Victoria, Herbert spends plenty of time on the Sunshine Coast where his coach Dom Azzopardi is based.

- Major wins: 1 (2013 Masters)
- PGA Tour wins: 1
- DP World Tour wins: 3
- 2023 best finishes: 1st ISPS HANDA Championship; 3rd Dubai Desert Classic; 3rd Saudi International; T9th WGC Dell Technologies Matchplay

Marc Leishman

Age: 40

A constant presence as one of Australian golf's leading performers on the world stage, climbing to as high as 12th in the world with six top-10 finishes in major championships, Leishman would love to add the Kirkwood Cup to his list of achievements. He finished 12th at Royal Queensland last year and has had four top-10 finishes worldwide in 2023.

- Challenger PGA Tour Australasia wins: 4 (2007 Toyota Southern Classic, 2006 Jisan Resort Open, 2006 Queensland Cairns Classic, 2006 Toyota Southern Classic)

Adrian Meronk

Age: 30

Something of a late bloomer in professional golf, Meronk is now one of the DP World Tour's leading players. He turned pro in 2016 and became the first Pole to win on DP World Tour when he triumphed in the 2022 Irish Open. Later in the year, he conquered Australia's best to claim the ISPS HANDA Australian Open at Victoria Golf Club, beating Adam Scott by five shots. Meronk was in strong contention to make Europe's Ryder Cup team this year and was considered to be an unlucky omission from the final squad of 12. A couple of weeks later he shot 66-66 at the weekend to win the Andalucia Masters.

- Challenger PGA Tour Australasia wins: 1 (2022 ISPS HANDA Australian Open)
- DP World Tour wins: 4
- 2023 best finishes: 1st Andalucia Masters, 1st Italian Open, T3rd BMW International, T4th Ras Al Khaimah Open, T5th KLM Open; T10th Abu Dhabi HSBC Championship

Robert MacIntyre

Age: 27

After an outstanding amateur career, MacIntyre turned pro in 2017 and had a victory in just his second tournament in Kuwait. In 2019, he became the leading Scot in the Official World Golf Ranking for the first time and claimed the DP World Tour's Rookie of the Year Award. However the lefthander's breakthrough year came in 2020 when he collected his first DP World Tour title in Cyprus. A second title followed in 2022 in Italy on the same course where he represented Europe with distinction in this year's Ryder Cup victory against the United States.

- DP World Tour wins: 2
- 2023 best finishes: 2nd Scottish Open; T4th Made In Himmerland; T4th Czech Masters; T6th Qatar Masters; T6th ISPS HANDA Championship; T7th Korea Championship; T7th Kenya Open

Mito Pereira

Age: 28

This is Mito's first appearance in one of the Australian majors. He came to global prominence at the 2022 US PGA Championship when he entered the final round with a three stroke lead only to eventually finish in equal third. That performance was featured in an episode of the Netflix documentary series Full Swing. Pereira won three times on the US Korn Ferry Tour in 2020/21 to earn an automatic promotion to the US PGA Tour. He qualified for the International team for the 2022 Presidents Cup.

- Worldwide wins: 10
- 2023 best finishes: 2nd LIV Greenbrier; 3rd LIV DC; 5th LIV Singapore, T5th St Andrews Bay Championship; T6th Saudi Invitational; 6th LIV Tucson; 6th LIV Orlando; T6th LIV Jeddah
